Step 2: Select at what level you would like to support MBB's mission.

MBB welcomes anyone with a passion for peace to join its community. Annual membership support is a primary source of critical, unrestricted funding. MBB members help to sustain the organization by funding the areas of greatest need which include general operations, administrative support to on-going projects, capacity-building, and, at times, emergency funding for project participants or MBB members in the field.

Associate Membership

Friend - $36.50+

Friends receive MBB newsletters, project updates, reports and announcements. They have access to the Member Forum and can get involved in a project, professional chapters and committees. They are also eligible for a special rate for the Annual Congress.

Bridge Builder - $182.50+

Bridge Builders are also recognized in the newsletter and on the website.

Institutional Membership

University Chapters $365

Membership covers 25 student members and two faculty members, and includes all Mediator Member benefits. Additional members are charged individually as Student Members.

Corporate Supporter $365

This level of commitment includes sponsorship of one Mediator Member with full benefits, special recognition in the Peace & Reconciliation Report, as well as recognition on the MBB website and at the Annual Congress.

Mediator Membership

Mediator Member - $365+

On top of all Associate Membership benefits, Mediator Members have a personal profile on the MBB website and are eligible to be Core Project Team Members. They can also publish in the Peace & Reconciliation Report.

Supporter $500 - $999

Sponsor $1,000 - $2,499

Benefactor $2,500+

Individuals in the three categories above are annually recognized in the Peace & Reconciliation Report, on the website and in the Annual Congress booklet.

Student Member - US $18.25

Student Members enjoy all benefits of Mediator Members.

Membership year starts every quarter (Jan. 1, Apr. 1, July 1, Oct. 1.)
